Thousands of protesters from all over the country gathered in Washington, D.C. to "Stop the Frack Attack" by natural gas companies that are destroying our air, our drinking water and our health.

NOT A SINGLE WORD APPEARED IN ANY CORPORATE MEDIA OUTLET, either in print or on television about this important rally.

You can view a gallery of photographs of the rally and march, on the EcoWatch Facebook page: http://www.facebook.com/media/set/?set=a.475951035751172.112511.159993367346942&type=1 .

Youtube videos, including Josh Fox (creator of GASLAND and THE SKY IS PINK) speaking at the event can be found here:

http://ecowatch.org/2012/video-stop-frack/

Please share these links so that others become aware of the work that so many people are doing on behalf of all Americans.