

New rules ease ban on guns in national parks

Sunday, 07 December 2008 10:53 -

People will soon be able to carry concealed, loaded guns in most national parks and wildlife refuges.

The Bush administration said Friday it is overturning a 25-year-old federal rule that severely restricts loaded guns in national parks.

TVNL Comment: How sweet. Good old Republican values.

More...