

With this publication, taxpayers can take stock of how the federal government spent each 2008 income tax dollar: 37.3 cents went towards military-related spending (military and military-related debt), while environment, energy and science-related spending

split

2.8 cents

. Income tax dollar spending is available for all states as well as over 200 cities and towns.

More...