

BP shuts down Georgia pipelines

Tuesday, 12 August 2008 21:46 -

The oil pipeline, which BP owns as part of a consortium, can carry up to 90,000 barrels of oil per day.

Another key oil pipeline, which runs from Azerbaijan through southern Georgia into Turkey, is already shut.

TVNL Comment: Just another reason to raise prices.

More...