

The sister in law of former British Prime Minister Tony Blair says she is among four foreign activists blocked from leaving the Gaza Strip by Israel and Egypt.

Lauren Booth says she has been trying to leave Gaza since Friday. But she says she has been turned away at Israeli and Egyptian border crossings.

Booth was among 46 international protesters who sailed into Gaza on August 23 in defiance of an Israeli blockade.

More...