

Israel reneges on settlement pledge

Thursday, 24 July 2008 10:42 -

An Israeli ministerial committee has approved construction of new homes in a West Bank settlement despite a pledge to the US to stop building on the site, Israeli media reported today.

TVNL Comment: American tax money at work. Your media won't tell you about this.

More...