

The Associated Press Lies and Deceives While Defaming Islam and Christianity, in Its Latest Apologia for Israel's Massacre on Gaza.

AP's selective, sensationalistic, and obviously agenda-inspired use of the "translation" — suicide bombing — is no better than referring to the Israeli Army's practice of putting Druze and Christian soldiers on the frontlines as blood libel. In the very least, it shows a lack of professionalism, honesty, and objectivity on AP's part; at most, it is a disgusting, politically-motivated, collectivist attack on several billion humans of the world and their faith.
