

Magnitude 3.4 earthquake strikes near Berkeley, USGS says

Saturday, 06 April 2024 16:22 -

---

Did you feel it? A magnitude 3.4 earthquake struck near Berkeley Saturday morning, according to United States Geological Survey .

The quake hit at around 11:12 a.m. It had a depth of 5.8 miles, the USGS said.

It was felt in Oakland, Richmond, El Sobrante, Richmond and San Francisco.

The San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency said for Muni passengers to expect minor delays as it is conducting visual safety checks.

More...